From the Pastor:

As we are celebrating the feast of Corpus Christi, the most Holy Body and Blood of Christ this Sunday, I would like to share the following inspiring thoughts on Holy Eucharist by St. Thomas Aquinas.

"How inestimable a dignity, beloved brethren, divine bounty has bestowed upon us Christians from the treasury of its infinite goodness! For their neither is nor ever has been a people to whom the gods were so nigh as our Lord and God is nigh unto us.

"Desirous that we be made partakers of His divinity, the only-begotten Son of God has taken to Himself our nature so that having become man, He would be enabled to make men gods. Whatever He assumed of our nature He wrought unto our salvation. For on the altar of the Cross He immolated to the Father His own Body as victim for our reconciliation and shed His blood both for our ransom and for our regeneration. Moreover, in order that a remembrance of so great benefits may always be with us, He has left us His Body as food and His Blood as drink under appearances of bread and wine.

"O banquet most precious! O banquet most admirable! O banquet overflowing with every spiritual delicacy! Can anything be more excellent than this repast, in which not the flesh of goats and heifers, as of old, but Christ the true God is given us for nourishment? What more wondrous than this holy sacrament! In it bread and wine are changed substantially, and under the appearance of a little bread and wine is had Christ Jesus, God and perfect Man. In this sacrament sins are purged away, virtues are increased, the soul is satiated with an abundance of every spiritual gift. No other sacrament is so beneficial. Since it was instituted unto the salvation of all, it is offered by Holy Church for the living and for the dead, that all may share in its treasures.

"My dearly beloved, is it not beyond human power to express the ineffable delicacy of this sacrament in which spiritual sweetness is tasted in its very source, in which is brought to mind the remembrance of that all-excelling charity which Christ showed in His sacred passion? Surely it was to impress more profoundly upon the hearts of the faithful the immensity of this charity that our loving Savior instituted this sacrament at the last supper when, having celebrated the Pasch with His disciples. He was about to leave the world and return to the Father. It was to serve as an unending remembrance of His passion, as the fulfillment of ancient types — this the greatest of His miracles. To those who sorrow over His departure He has given a unique solace." (Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch).

Further, I have given scripture based explanation on this feast by Fr. Anthony Kadavil in a bulletin insert.

Many thanks and appreciation: On my return from retreat, I was so pleased to learn that our Totus Tuus program went very well. I do thank Debbie Klindt and Carol Plank for jointly organizing it and making it very successful. I appreciate them immensely for their dedicated services to the Parish. I also thank those who readily provided accommodation, food and snacks to our visiting team and our kids and generous donations towards the program. My special thanks go to the volunteers and all who rendered different services for sharing their valuable time and talent. I extend my thanks to Fr. Regnald OP at Newman Centre, Columbia for doing Mass for the kids and hearing their confession during the program days. Finally, I thank the Totus Tuus Missionary team, Rachel Lutz, Taylor Sedgwick, Jacob Struempf and Shane Kliethermes for their commendable services to our kids. You will find more details in the bulletin insert. May the Lord continue to bless them and you all for the wonderful service done to God's Children during Totus Tuus week June from 9 – 14. If anyone is missed out of the program, the parents can contact Eldon where it is taking place from July 7 – 12.

'A big thank you' to the members of Prolife Group for providing prayer cards and cookies to the Fathers who attended Mass on Father's Day last weekend. It is really a wonderful service.

Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary: It is generally celebrated after the feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus which falls on June 28 this year. Now, the following day being the feast of St. Peter & St. Paul, the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary is shifted to June 30th, Sunday in our Diocese. As she being the Patroness of our diocese, the Bishop desires that we celebrate it on the weekend of June 29th and 30th in the place of 13th Sunday in Ordinary time. And so, the readings and responsorial psalms will be different and are available at the Parish Office. Hence, I request the lectors and choir leaders of both the Masses at the last weekend of June to contact the Parish Office and get prepared for the feast. If possible, copies of the readings and response will be made available in the pews for the people, too.

Decree on Mass Offerings: As per the decree signed by the Bishops of the dioceses of Missouri State, the Mass offerings become $10.00 to be effective from July 1st, 2019. You will find the signed decree on the Parish Bulletin Board.

Take away free books: We have placed some copies of books by Dynamic Catholic publications with the titles of 'Confessions of a Mega Church Pastor and Resisting Happiness' at the back of the church. You are free to take a copy and make a good use of it.

Relief parents, St. Nicholas Academy

St. Nicholas Academy is a supportive living experience for boys from families that are under-resourced who want to give their sons every opportunity to succeed in school and life. St. Nick's partners with families and St. Peter Interparish School to provide this opportunity. St. Nick's is seeking Christian, married couples or single individuals who are willing to be part of a pool of relief parents. The role of relief parents is to care for the boys and home when the full-time house parents are off duty or away.

Typically, the full-time house parents are off duty every fourth weekend from 9:00 AM Friday through 7:00 PM Sunday. Relief parents, on a rotational schedule, fill in during this time. They may also be asked to be on a call list to help fill in when the house parents are on vacation and/or sick.

Relief parents receive an hourly wage, all legally mandated benefits and a compensation package that includes a private suite and all meals for the days on duty.
