Bishop W. Shawn McKnight: As my two-year anniversary as your bishop draws near, I find myself grateful every day for the opportunity to be the shepherd for God's people here in central and northern Missouri. Your dedication to living as disciples of Christ has been edifying and consoling to me! At the same time, I read these sentences from Pope Francis' exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), and I ask, have we fulfilled this vision?

"The parish is the presence of the Church in a given territory, an environment for hearing God's word, for growth in the Christian life, for dialogue, proclamation, charitable outreach, worship and celebration. In all its activities the parish encourages and trains its members to be evangelizers. It is a community of communities, a sanctuary where the thirsty come to drink in the midst of their journey, and a center of constant missionary outreach" (No. 28). While much good work is happening, we must be responsible stewards and consider what else needs to be done. Allowing the status quo to continue not only means we could be responsible for the demise of our Church, but also that we are refusing to embrace our baptismal call to be salt of the earth, a light to the world! Following up on our Advent series, "A Steward's Way," I am inviting every parish and every Catholic in our diocese to join in a pastoral planning process, "Better Together." By breaking open the Church's teachings, especially those of the Second Vatican Council and Pope Francis, we want each parish in the Diocese to be known as a place of charity and mercy, accomplished by clergy and laity working together, and by being grounded in a spirituality of stewardship. The full blog can be read here: <https://diojeffcity.org/blog/2020/01/22/being-a-church-living-in-the-midst-of-her-people/>

If you would like to lead a small group (4 sessions), please contact Becky Schwaller 573-338-1764.
