BETTER TOGETHER

What does stewardship look like for you and for your parish?

Throughout our diocese this Lent, people are meeting in small groups to break open the Word of God and study Church teachings. In these small groups, we will discern action for our parishes and our diocese to live our faith. Over four weeks, we will explore themes related to Bishop Shawn McKnight's vision for our diocese. Contact your parish to join a small group!

FROM THE PASTOR: 4th Sunday of Lent (A)

What we often see in life is that most people who are either challenged or have some physical disabilities tend to rise above the ordinary expectations and sometimes surprise the world with the power of their inner strength. It is striking that in the story of the man born blind, the man's neighbors enter into a debate – once he is healed as to whether it is in fact the same man. It is as if they have difficulty recognizing him once the blindness that was for them his defining feature is gone. The young man born blind was in the eyes of the disciples of Jesus a sufferer probably from the sins he committed. For the pharisees, the blind man was a pretender. Notice that the refer to him as “the one who used to sit and beg.” For them, he was not a person with a name and probably a story, but simply a part of the landscape, wholly defined by his blindness and his begging.

The irony of the story is that it is the man's neighbors who are really the blind ones. It is they who cannot see beyond their presumptions and prejudices and truly perceive the blind man.

The story also is how a blind man who used to sit and beg became a disciple who went about witnessing to Jesus. As in last week's story of the conversion of the Samaritan woman by Jacob's well, this story on the healing of the unnamed blind man shows that all we need to qualify as disciples of Jesus is having a certain kind of experience. Apparently, the unnamed man, thought to be blind, is the one who now saw Christ as “prophet” and “healer” from God. Those who were supposed to see, were distracted and blinded by jealousy.

Let us today admit our spiritual blindness and pray with St. Augustine of Hippo in the spirit of lent and today's gospel: “Lord that we may see.”

Our Lady of the Snows Catholic School is excited to announce it is bringing back the “Loads for Funds” laundry detergent/softener and “Pleasant Dreams” bedsheet fundraisers which are proven fundraisers that sell themselves. With the fundraiser's profit from last year, the school was able to purchase chrome books for all 2nd through 8th grade students and their teachers. For every product sold, OLOS will once again receive a profit of $15.00! There are no up-front costs, flat rate profits, and free shipping! We will be selling these after weekend Masses, when able, with the sale ending on Friday, April 17th. Our intention is to run the sale again around August/September, as a 5-gallon bucket of laundry detergent lasts an average family 6 months. All School families are encouraged to sell these products so we can maximize our profits. All proceeds will be earmarked for the technology drive to help advance our students' education. This is a win-win for all and effortless fundraiser. Order forms will be sent home with each school family and see enclosed flyers. Please see Joan Doerhoff for more information. Thank you for your continued support of the education needs of OLOS students and school.

At this time, the annual Chrism Mass is still open to the public, at the Cathedral Church of St. Joseph, 2215 W. Main St., Jefferson City on Thursday, April 2, at 5:30 p.m. However, per the dispensation provided by Bishop W. Shawn McKnight, those age 60 and older (including priests and deacons) should not attend. This is in addition to those already dispensed due to illness or a compromised immune system, those living with them and their caregivers. Plans are being made to provide the liturgy over the internet.

This liturgy unites the diocese in recalling the gifts of the holy priesthood and the Most Holy Eucharist. The Oil of the Sick and the Oil of the Catechumens are blessed and the Sacred Chrism is consecrated at this time. These holy oils impact the lives of those who are preparing to enter into the Church, those who are ill, and all preparing for confirmation and holy orders.
